

LCAP Goal #2: The Importance of Reading and Attendance

Oct 26, 2022

- Parents allowed in- 8:07 AM
- Lisa & Allyson put up slides- 8:14 AM
- Lisa started announcements- 8:15 AM
 - Trunk or Treat
 - Parent asked about where to leave candy donations for Trunk or Treat
 - Staff introductions: Allyson, Brenda, Nancy, Jessica
- Meeting started, led by Lisa Taylor- 8:19 AM
- Agenda discussed:
 - Welcome
 - The Importance of Reading
 - The Importance of Attendance
- Fall 2022 Placement for reading
- ELA SBAC placements for grades 3rd-6th
- What are we doing to close the reading gap?
 - Classroom Instruction (tier 1)
 - Classroom Intervention (tier 1.5)
 - Reading Intervention- outside the classroom (tier 2)
 - Promote LOVE of Reading (Library, Book Fair, Reading at Home challenge)
 - Introduction of Anti-Bullying club
 - Parent suggestion- Mom bought books she used to read as a child at thrift store to share with her student, suggests getting together with other families to share recommendations, discussion of merging reading and technology (On Clever: Epic, Storytelling Online, Vooks, online books, YouTube storytelling, etc...), reading picture books with older students, Book Buddies*, Fun story
- The Importance of Reading
 - Article
- Attendance
 - Statistics & Definition of ADA
 - Meadow's ADA to date: 93.69% , goal is 96%
 - Article
 - Causes
 - Illness
 - Socio-Economic
 - Bullying
 - Impact on Student
 - Learning loss
 - Learning gap increases
 - Increases anxiety
 - Other Impacts
 - School Effectiveness
 - Academic Performance
 - Enrollment

- Funding
 - Renewal
- School Efforts
 - Weekly attendance celebration
 - PERFECT attendance
 - Celebration
 - Truancy letters
- Parent Survey announced
- Q: How often are truancy letters sent out?
 - Every two weeks
- Q: Family Reading Events
 - Read & Feed
 - Read-a-thon
- Reminder about Parent Volunteer form
- Q: Reading challenge
 - Partnering with Drama club, actors play out book scenes
- Meeting adjourned- 8:50 AM